A few spaces remaining on the CPPE NHS Pharmacy
Contraception Service event
Thursday 22nd May 2025

---

The NHS Pharmacy Contraception Service has become part of the NHS Pharmacy First service bundle required for £1000 monthly block payments.

Community Pharmacy England states that by 31 March 2025 at the latest, all pharmacy owners providing NHS Pharmacy First services, as well as meeting the relevant consultation threshold, will also have to provide the Pharmacy Contraception Service and the Hypertension Case-Finding Service to qualify for the monthly fixed payment.

How confident do you feel about providing consultations to initiate oral contraception as part of the NHS Pharmacy Contraception Service?

CPPE are running a face-to-face workshop on Thursday 22nd May 2025 at The MAC, Cannon Hill Birmingham 7-9pm. This workshop supports you to gain confidence in supporting people who are starting, restarting or switching oral contraceptives, with other pharmacy professionals from your locality and an expert speaker who has extensive experience of delivering these consultations in practice.

To make the most of this opportunity, book on of the few remaining spaces at Book a workshop
